VICKI VICTORIA

"WILD WOMEN DON'T HAVE THE BLUES AND NEITHER DOES SHE"

The Twin Cities' first female pop/rock singer Vicki Victoria has recently released a new CD of jazz and blues tunes titled I'm Having a Good Time!

This dazzling "newcomer" and rockin' romantic blues and jazz standards singer's CD was listed as one of the top ten local discs in the Twin Cities in 1997 by Jim Meyers of the Minneapolis Star Tribune.

One of those singers who can bring a song alive... deliciously authentic, soulful, and straiight from the heart...smooth, crisp vocals...emotionally uplifting...Jeannie Verstraete of Twin Cities Blues News

....Classic barrelhouse, barroom and bawdy blues dominate this entertaining effort from singer Vicki Victoria...the band is terrific...Bob Protzman, Saint Paul Pioneer Press

Victoria's CD was produced by local blues legend Willie Murphy, who gained national recognition when he produced Bonnie Raitt's first album in the early 1970's.

Murphy recently released two CD's. His first full length album of original music in almost 10 years, Monkey in the Zoo is a profoundly personal life's work for the combative, chameleonic funk rocker. His Hustlin' Man Blues was voted best blues recording of 1997 by the Minnesota Music Academy. For more info contact: www.wwcoinc.com/willie
